

Central Texas Muslim Networking Group

The Central Texas Muslim Networking Group (CTMNG) exists to actively leverage the common experience and values among Muslims in order to promote and enhance individual member's business, career, wealth, political and charitable interests.

To that end, we:

- Hold monthly networking meetings and periodically other events. We have regularly scheduled meetings the 3rd Wednesday of each month at the Bismillah Restaurant. The address is 6929 Airport Blvd # 199, Austin, TX 78752. The schedule is: 11:30-12:00 socializing and 12:00-1:00 for buffet lunch.
- Actively promote doing business with other members.
- Promote the creation of interest groups within the organization that revolve around the five themes of business, career, wealth, politics and charity.
- Encourage those that know of job opportunities that they can influence to post them to our site to help those seeking positions.
- Provide a forum on our site for those that are seeking jobs to post their resume.

Membership is free.

Please visit our website: www.muslimnetworking.org

Contact CTMNG at info@muslimnetworking.org

Kemal Benouis (512) 465-9668